History: Tony worked for many years as a session and touring musician, playing guitar in bands and recording in studios worldwide. He moved into Production in 1988 when he formed Tony Lowe Productions in Ealing, London. During this time, he worked with many upcoming new artists and musicians helping to develop their material for publishers and record labels, going on to produce albums and singles for small labels. Tony was also a session guitarist with various Artists and Producers and played on many recordings at Trident Studios from 1978-1985. In 1990 he co-wrote and produced the concept album and live event, All of the Above, which along with a following album, Second Nature, was balloted for a total of 14 Grammys. In 2011 he joined forces with Cheryl Stringall to form Sunn Creative, a record label and media production company and is now an in-house Producer and Creative Director. Tony produced four albums for Sunn Creative including Bram Stoker's album, Cold Reading as well as writing, playing guitar, bass and programming drums. Cold Reading was well received by Prog lovers and critically reviewed in over 23 music industry publications worldwide. In July 2014 Tony and Alison Fleming released their third album, Human Sleeping Dreams 1 to 8. In 2014/15 he produced the new Chris Gray albums, Don't Lose Your Way & Diamonds In Your Tree and co-produced Simon Townshend's Denial album as well as the Starlight-Starless album by David Cross & Robert Fripp.

In 2015 Tony teamed up with Mark Brzezicki (Big Country, Procol Harum) as ESP and began writing and producing Invisible Din, a concept album which features a number of progressive rock artists as special guests (David Cross, David Jackson, John Young) – release date 11th November 2016.

He has also co-produced a number of videos for Sunn Creative; including promo videos for Sign of the Crow by The David Cross Band and Starless Starlight by David Cross & Robert Fripp.
